General Michael V. Hayden

(b)(6)

Dear General Hayden:

The Publications Review Board, in coordination with ODNI, NSA, and DoD, has completed its review of your manuscript entitled "Untitled Book [redacted] In accor(b)(3) NatSecAct with the terms of your secrecy agreement, the Board has determined that information in your manuscript is inappropriate for disclosure in the public domain (i.e., is considered to be classified information) and must be revised or deleted prior to publication. This information can be found on pages: [redacted]

(b)(3) NatSecAct

A copy of the edited pages is enclosed for your records. The Board is always willing to meet with you to provide clearer explanations to the objectionable text. Please contact us at  (b)(3) CIAAct  if you would like to schedule a meeting in our office.

The Board understands that you have spoken with NSA regarding changes they require for their equities. PRB has included them in this response.

Please note, the Board reviewed the submitted chapters of your manuscript and would like to remind you that there are some instances where text approved in this submission could become problematic in the manuscript as a whole.

The Board has no objection if you share the edited version (i.e. version containing the blacked out portions) of your manuscript with others. After making the changes the Board requires, you must resubmit the updated version of your manuscript, with the changed pages clearly identified, for final Agency review. When the Board confirms the updated latest version of your manuscript does not contain any classified information, we will provide written authorization for you to share the updated manuscript with others.

(b)(3) NatSecAct

If you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted includes, but is not limited to, additional text, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, biographies, cover images, or maps.

At the appropriate step, you must submit the galley proofs (or other final-version formats) of the final manuscript as it will appear in book form so the Board can verify that the published version is the approved version. Your responsibility as the author is to ensure that the publisher publishes only the Board-approved version. Since this final review may take up to thirty days, please ensure that the publishing schedule permits adequate time for the Board to complete its work. The Board gives these reviews high priority because it knows that authors and publishers have firm deadlines.

The Board requires that you include the following disclaimer in your book:

This does not constitute an official release of CIA information. All statements of fact, opinion, or analysis expressed are those of the author and do not reflect the official positions or views of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) or any other U.S. Government agency. Nothing in the contents should be construed as asserting or implying U.S. Government authentication of information or CIA endorsement of the author's views. This material has been reviewed solely for classification.

If you disagree with the Board's determination, you may ask the Board in writing and within 30 days of the initial determination, to reconsider. Include any and all information or explanation of the facts that you believe the Board should know. You may include citations or copies of similar references that show this information to have been previously released and already in the public domain, although a mere listing of published citations may not necessarily be sufficient to change the Board's decision. If the Board upholds its initial decision, you may then formally appeal the Board's reconsideration decision. Such appeals go to the Agency's Executive Director for a final Agency decision. If you wish to appeal, you must do so within 30 days of the Board's reconsideration decision. The appeal must be in writing and must be sent to the Board's Chairman. Appeal documentation must include the material intended for publication and any supporting material you would like the Executive Director to consider. Please note that in all cases, the decision of the ExDir/CIA is final. If an appeal is NOT brought to the attention of ExDir/CIA within applicable time limits, the original decision of the PRB will be adopted.

The Board appreciates your cooperation with prepublication review. Please do not hesitate to contact the Publications Review Board at [redacted] if you have any questions (b)(3) CIAAct if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

(b)(3) CIAAct
(b)(6)

Chairman, Publications Review Board
